1. At a Tudeh Party cadre class meeting on 7 January 1953, the instructor stated that the two essential objectives of Party tactics at this time are the elimination of a feudal elements<sup>1</sup> and the expulsion of representatives of imperialistic powers. He stated that feudal elements can best be eliminated by inciting the peasants to take the land away from the landlords, and that the expulsion of imperialists is to be the constant objective of Party propaganda.<sup>2</sup>
2. The instructor added that, when these two objectives have been achieved, Iran will be ready for a Tudeh Democratic regime.

[REDACTED] Comments

1. According to [REDACTED], the Tudeh Party looks upon the peasant population as the most significant element in internal politics. According to the same report, there has been ample evidence during 1952 to illustrate the thoroughness with which the Party has pursued its peasant campaign, and the peasants are at last showing signs of unwillingness to endure their oppression by illegal seizures of property.
2. According to [REDACTED] the Tudeh Party's primary tactical objectives include an attack against the American Military Mission and Point 4 assistance through a coalition with other political groups.
